Satisfaction Guaranteed

Chris Hart, Mayor

During the first two weeks of July Ivins residents were invited to declare their candidacy to fill one of the three City Council seats being vacated at the end of the year. I was pleased to see the interest shown as thirteen of you signed up hoping to serve in that important office. To me it illustrates the community spirit and desire to contribute that is alive and well here in Ivins.

I was privileged at the same time to present Linda Elwell with the Mayor's Award for Community Service. She has worked tirelessly for many years serving on a number of committees, promoting civic causes and organizing festivals and events for the City. She continues to this day currently serving as Chairman of our newly formed Festival Committee and as Friends of Ivins Animal Shelter Vice President. Even though it's difficult for her to get around there's no slowing her down. When asked to comment on why she does it she said, "Because I love Ivins, its residents and the animals our no kill shelter cares for. Volunteering brings people together to make Ivins an even better place to live".

I too have found community service to be personally satisfying. I've had the opportunity to serve on various ordinance review committees, the Planning Commission and the City Council before being elected Mayor. I have found each of these experiences to be interesting and rewarding. I've learned a great deal about city government and the genius of the public process, and along the way my love for our community and the people who live here has grown.

There are a number of ways to lend support to our community. Circumstances may not always allow for a major commitment of time, but what you do have to offer can certainly be put to good use. There are opportunities to volunteer at our animal shelter or to help coach a team in one of our youth leagues. Events like our Fitness Festival wouldn't survive without strong volunteer support. Eagle Scout projects often require large numbers of helpers and outside donations to complete. The City has benefitted greatly from many such projects.

We have an incredible group of volunteer firefighters who respond to emergencies of all kinds within and beyond our city limits. Recently they were called out on two potentially devastating fires keeping homes from burning and property damage at a minimum. As if that weren't enough they put on fund raising breakfasts, outstanding ones I might add, two or three times a year and sell t-shirts and cookbooks to support their efforts. We owe a huge debt of gratitude to this outstanding group of civic minded citizens.

You're providing community service when you help a neighbor in need or pick up litter on the street. Attending a Planning Commission or City Council meeting to let your voice be heard in a public hearing serves the community. Donating to the Good Samaritan Fund or to the Veterans Home as many of you have done is yet another expression of community support. I've been made aware of efforts to organize a day of community service to take place in October during which neighborhoods will have the opportunity to tackle needs around the City making life better not only for those who are helped but for the community as a whole.

I want to thank you for all you do to make Ivins such a great place to live. I encourage you to visit the City website at www.ivins.com regularly and read the newsletters to see what's happening and what opportunities for service might exist. For example, the best time to influence public policy is to be a part of the discussion and upcoming public hearings are posted on the website and included in the newsletter. If there is a need for volunteers like will occur during Heritage Days in October you can find the call for help in those two places. If you'd like to serve on a committee or be contacted when there is a need I'd encourage you to give your name and contact information to our staff at City Hall so you can be included in our growing volunteer database. Two things for sure, your efforts on behalf of the City are much appreciated and your personal satisfaction in serving is guaranteed. I think you'll find that you gain more than you give when you invest yourself in your community. I know I have.
